UNDERSTANDING YOUR IRS INDIVIDUAL TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

IRS assistance is available to help you prepare your Form W-7/W-7(SP)

In the United States, call:
1-800-829-1040 (toll-free) or

Make an appointment at your local IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC) by calling 1-844-545-5640.

For listings of your local IRS TACs or IRS authorized Acceptance Agents, go to <https://www.irs.gov>.

Persons outside the U.S. may call
1-267-941-1000 for assistance
(this is not a toll-free call).

WHAT'S NEW:

Medical/School records checklist. We added a new detailed medical/school records checklist at the end of the publication.

Expanded discussion of allowable tax benefit. We added qualifying surviving spouse to the list of allowable tax benefits. Also, we added a TIP explaining what it takes to demonstrate if a dependent qualifies for an allowable tax benefit.

Form W-7 can be submitted for a dependent claimed for the child and dependent care credit or credit for other dependents even if the return has no tax to be reduced by those credits. See Allowable tax benefit, later, for more information.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO NOTE:

1. Because of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) of 2017, the deduction for personal exemptions was suspended for tax years 2018 through 2025. As a result, spouses and dependents are not eligible for an ITIN or to renew an ITIN unless they are claimed for an allowable tax benefit or they file their own federal return. The individual must be listed on an attached U.S. federal tax return for an allowable tax benefit. See "what is an allowable tax benefit?" later, for more information.

2. A passport is a stand-alone document for proof of your "identity" and "foreign status" only. If you submit a valid passport (or copy certified by the issuing agency), you do not need to submit a combination of at least two or more other current documents from the Table on Page 17. However, any supplemental documentation to prove "Exception" criteria, must always be submitted along with your Form W-7

Note: A passport without a date of entry into the United States will no longer be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for certain dependents. See Dependency/Exemption Issues on Page 11 for more information.

3. You may not e-file a tax return(s) using an ITIN in the year in which it is received. If you apply for and receive an ITIN this year, you may not e-file any tax return using that ITIN (including prior year returns) until next year. (See Page 8 for additional information on e-filing).

4. The entry date in the U.S. (Line 6d, Form W-7) must contain the complete date on which you entered the United States for the purpose for which you are requesting an ITIN. The date should be entered in month/day/year format (mm/dd/yyyy). If you have not entered the U.S. enter "Never entered the United States" on this line.
5. Copies of a passport must include the U.S. visa pages if a visa is required for your Form W-7 application. (For example, if you check reason box (f) or (g) on Form W-7, make sure to include a copy of the visa).
6. Expired ITINs. If your ITIN wasn't included on at least one U.S. federal tax return for the last three consecutive tax years, it expires on December 31st of the third consecutive tax year, and must be renewed before being used again on a U.S. federal tax return. If your ITIN was assigned before 2013 and was never renewed, you'll need to submit a renewal application with your U.S. federal tax return.

REMINDERS:

1. All documents must be original documents or copies certified by the issuing agency.
2. Apply using the most current Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number or Form W-7(SP), Solicitud de Número de Identificación Personal del Contribuyente del Servicio de Impuestos Internos. All subsequent notices and correspondence will be sent to you in the language of the original Form W-7/W-7(SP) that you submit to IRS.
3. All ITIN applications (including those submitted by Acceptance Agents) must have a valid U.S. Federal income tax return attached to Form W-7. ITINs will not be assigned prior to the taxpayer filing a valid U.S. Federal income tax return (Form 1040, 1040NR, 1040X), to pay or claim withheld taxes unless an "exception" to the tax return filing requirement is met (see "Exceptions" later in this publication) or you are renewing your ITIN.
4. If an ITIN is being requested for a dependent under 14 years of age (18 if a student) then one of the supporting documents to prove "foreign status" and "identity" must be a Birth Certificate, unless a passport is submitted.
5. Supply original proof of identity and foreign status documents or copies certified by the issuing agency – there are only 13 acceptable documents (see the "Supporting Documentation Table" later in this Publication). The IRS will only accept original documents or copies certified by the issuing agency. If you will need your documentation for any purpose within 60 days of submitting your ITIN application, you may wish to schedule an appointment to apply in person at designated IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers (TACs) where your original documents or certified copies will be reviewed and returned to you immediately. See <https://www.irs.gov/help/contact-your-local-irs-office> for more information on services offered by TACs. If your documents have not been returned after 60 days, or if your mailing address has changed since submitting your application, you may call 1-800-829-1040 (toll-free within the United States). Taxpayers overseas can call 1-267-941-1000 (not a toll -free number) for assistance.
6. First apply for a Social Security Number (SSN) if entering the U.S. with a green card or visa that permits you to obtain employment in the U.S. If the Social Security Administration (SSA) determines you aren't eligible for an SSN, a letter of denial must be obtained and attached to your Form W-7. This requirement applies if you are requesting an ITIN under an "exception". Refer to "Exceptions" for additional information for students, researchers and professors and individuals receiving honoraria payments.
7. If submitting a Power of Attorney (POA) with your Form W-7 application, use IRS Form 2848. Substitute POAs must contain all elements of Form 2848, and if in a foreign language, you must provide a certified English translation.

8. Mail Form W-7/W-7(SP), proof of identity documents and a valid U.S. Federal income tax return, if applicable, to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

If you are using a private delivery service and need to provide a street address, send your Form W-7 package to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
Mail Stop 6090-AUSC
3651 S. Interregional, Hwy 35
Austin, TX 78741-0000

CAUTION: If you are attaching your tax return to the Form W-7, do not use the mailing address in the instructions for your tax return. Do not send a "copy" of the return to any other IRS office.

You can apply for an ITIN by mail or by appointment at any designated IRS TAC in the United States.

You can also apply through an Acceptance Agent, (see "What are Acceptance Agents?" later in this publication).

The IRS will send your ITIN in the form of an assignment letter. An ITIN does not change your immigration status or grant your right to work in the United States. An ITIN is for tax purposes only.

Change of address. It's important that the IRS is aware of your current mailing address. This address is used to mail notices about your Form W-7, including notification of your assigned ITIN, and return your original supporting documentation. If you move before you receive your ITIN, notify us of your current mailing address immediately, so we may update our records.

GENERAL INFORMATION

What is an ITIN?

An ITIN is a tax processing number, issued by the Internal Revenue Service, for certain resident and nonresident aliens, their spouses, and their dependents. It is a nine-digit number beginning with the number "9", has a range of numbers from "50" to "65", "70" to "88", "90" to "92" and "94" to "99" for the fourth and fifth digits and is formatted like a SSN (i.e. 9XX-7X-XXXX).

ITINs are issued regardless of immigration status because both resident and nonresident aliens may have United States Federal tax filing and payment responsibilities under the Internal Revenue Code.

What is the purpose of an ITIN?

ITINs are used for federal tax purposes only, and are not intended to serve any other purpose. IRS issues ITINs to help individuals comply with the U.S. tax laws, and to provide a means to efficiently process and account for tax returns and payments for those not eligible for Social Security Numbers.

An ITIN:

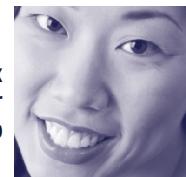

1. Does not authorize work in the U.S. or provide eligibility for Social Security Benefits or the Earned Income Tax Credit.
2. Is not valid for identification outside of the tax system.
3. Does not change immigration status.

An applicant must enter his/her ITIN in the space provided for the SSN when completing and filing a U.S. Federal income tax return (Form 1040, 1040NR, 1040X).

NOTE: Applicants are required to file their Form W-7/W-7(SP) with a valid U.S. Federal income tax return attached, unless they meet an exception to return filing (see "Exceptions").

Are ITINs valid for identification?

ITINs are not valid for identification outside of the tax system and should not be offered as identification for non-tax purposes. ITIN applicants are not required to apply in person.

Who must apply?

Any individual who is not eligible to obtain a SSN but who must furnish a taxpayer identification number to the IRS must apply for an ITIN on Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Do not complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) if you have a SSN or if you are eligible to obtain a SSN (i.e., A United States citizen or person lawfully admitted for employment).

Applicants must have a valid filing requirement and file a valid U.S. Federal income tax return with their ITIN applications, unless they meet one of the exceptions listed later in this publication.

NOTE: Exceptions relate to the tax return filing requirement. They do not relate to the tax purpose. Therefore, all individuals must have a tax purpose for requesting an ITIN, whether or not a U.S. Federal income tax return is submitted to the IRS with Form W-7.

To determine if you have a filing requirement, see Publication 17, Your Federal Income Tax, or Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Examples of who needs an ITIN:

- A nonresident alien individual eligible to obtain the benefit of a reduced tax withholding rate under an income tax treaty. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.
- A nonresident alien individual not eligible for a SSN who is required to file a U.S. Federal income tax return or who is filing a U.S. tax return only to claim a refund.
- A nonresident/resident alien individual not eligible for a SSN who elects to file a joint U.S. Federal income tax return with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident.
- A U.S. resident alien (based on the substantial presence test) who files a U.S. Federal income tax return but who is not eligible for a SSN. For information about the substantial presence test, see Pub. 519.
- An alien spouse, claimed as an exemption on a U.S. Federal income tax return, who is not eligible to obtain a SSN. Note: A spouse can be claimed as an exemption only for tax year 2017 and prior.
- An alien individual eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. Federal income tax return but who is not eligible to obtain a SSN. To determine if an alien individual is eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. Federal income tax return, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information and Pub. 519. Note: A dependent can be claimed as an exemption only for tax year 2017 and prior.
- A nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher who is required to file a U.S. Federal income tax return but who is not eligible for a SSN.

If you have an application for a SSN pending, do not file Form W-7/W-7(SP). Complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) only when the SSA notifies you that you aren't eligible for an SSN. Proof that the SSA denied your request for a SSN must be included with your submission of Form W-7/W-7(SP), whether you are attaching your U.S. Federal income tax return or requesting an ITIN under one of the "exceptions".

To request a SSN, use Form SS-5, "Application for a Social Security Card, (Original, Replacement or Correction)". This form can be obtained from the SSA or downloaded from the IRS web site at <https://www.ssa.gov/forms>. To find out if you are eligible to obtain a SSN, contact your nearest SSA Office.

IMPORTANT NOTE: If you are filing for an extension of time to file a United States Federal income tax return (Form 4868 or Form 2688) or making an estimated payment with Forms 4868, 2688, or Form 1040-ES/1040-ES (NR), "Estimated Tax for Individuals/Estimated Tax for Nonresident Aliens" do not file the Form W-7/W-7(SP) with these forms. Write "ITIN TO BE REQUESTED" wherever the ITIN or SSN is requested. An ITIN will be issued only after you have filed a valid U.S. Federal income tax return and have met all other requirements.

How do I apply for an ITIN?

You must complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) and attach a valid U.S. Federal income tax return, unless you qualify for an exception. Include your original, or copy certified by the issuing agency of identity documents along with the "letter of denial" from the SSA (if applicable). Because you are filing your tax return as an attachment to your ITIN application, you should not mail your return to the address listed in the Form 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ instructions. Instead, send your return, Form W-7/W-7(SP) and proof of identity documents to the address listed in the Form W-7 instructions:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

You may also apply using the services of an IRS-authorized Acceptance Agent or visit an IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC) instead of mailing the information to the IRS. Service at TACs is by appointment only. Appointments can be scheduled by calling 1-844-545-5640.

TACs are available to:

- Assist taxpayers in the preparation of the Form W-7/W-7(SP).
- Answer questions about Form W-7/W-7(SP).
- Review and/or validate your identity. Designated TAC offices will verify original documentation and certified copies of documentation from the issuing agency for primary and secondary applicants and dependents in person. For dependents, TACs can verify passports, national identification cards, and birth certificates only.
- Forward your Form W-7/W-7(SP), and accompanying U.S. Federal income tax return, if applicable, to the IRS processing service center.

Telephone assistance is also available by calling the IRS toll-free number at 1-800-829-1040 (inside the United States) for information and help in completing your Form W-7/W-7(SP) and your tax return.

International applicants may call 1-267-941-1000 (not a number) for assistance. This number is not available for residents of the U.S.

REMINDER: Use the most current version of Form W-7 to avoid delays in processing or the application being returned to you. For your convenience, you can download Form W-7 from our world wide website at <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw7.pdf>, complete, print then sign the Form W-7.

Should spouses and dependents apply for or renew their ITINs?

For tax years 2018 through 2025, spouses and dependents should not apply for or renew an ITIN unless they are claimed for an allowable tax benefit or if they file their own tax return. The individual must be listed on an attached U.S. individual federal tax return with the schedule or form that applies to the allowable tax benefit.

What is an allowable tax benefit?

For tax years after December 31, 2017, spouses and dependents are NOT eligible for an ITIN or to renew an ITIN unless they are claimed for an allowable tax benefit or they file their own tax return. Spouses and dependents must be listed on an attached U.S. federal tax return and include the schedule, form or check the box on the return that applies to the allowable tax benefit. An allowable tax benefit includes a spouse filing a joint return, head of household (HOH), qualifying surviving spouse (QSS), American opportunity tax credit (AOTC), premium tax credit (PTC), child and dependent care credit (CDCC), or credit for other dependents (ODC).

Head of household (HOH). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim the HOH filing status, then an attached tax return is required that checks the HOH filing status box and lists the applicant as a dependent. Dependent applicants must be your qualifying children or qualifying relatives and must either:

- Have lived with you for more than half the year (including temporary absences), or
- Be your parent.

See Pub 501 for more information.

Qualifying surviving spouse (QSS). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim the QSS filing status, then an attached tax return is required that checks the QSS filing status box and lists the applicant as a dependent. A dependent applicant must be your qualifying child or qualifying relative who is also your son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter, and must have lived with you the entire year (including temporary absences). See Pub. 501 for more information.

CAUTION: An ITIN will not be assigned or renewed for a HOH or QSS qualifying person who is not also claimed as a dependent on an attached tax return.

American opportunity tax credit (AOTC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim the AOTC, then an attached tax return and Form 8863 that list the applicant are required. Dependent applicants must be qualifying children or qualifying relatives of the taxpayer who claims the AOTC. See Pub. 970 for more information.

Premium tax credit (PTC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim PTC; then an attached tax return that lists the applicant and Form 8962 are required. See Pub. 974 for more information.

Child and dependent care credit (CDCC). Form W-7 can be submitted for a dependent claimed for the CDCC even if the tax return has no tax to be reduced by the CDCC. If Form W-7 is submitted to claim CDCC, then an attached tax return and Form 2441 that list the applicant as a qualifying person are required. See Pub. 503 for more information.

Credit for other dependents (ODC). Form W-7 can be submitted for a dependent claimed for the ODC even if the tax return has no tax to be reduced by the ODC and Schedule 8812 is not included. If Form W-7 is submitted to claim a dependent for the ODC, then an attached tax return that lists the applicant as a dependent with the "Credit for other dependents" box checked next to their name is required. Dependent applicants must be your qualifying children or qualifying relatives who are U.S. residents or U.S. nationals. See Schedule 8812 (Form 1040) and its instructions for more information.

TIP: Listing a dependent on the attached tax return is not an allowable tax benefit on its own. If your dependent qualifies you for the ODC or a filing status, be sure to check the box for the ODC or the filing status. For example, when preparing your tax return, tax software might not automatically check the "Credit for other dependents" box for a dependent with no taxpayer identification number listed on the tax return. You need to make sure this box is checked. We will enter the ITIN on your return when we issue the ITIN.

When will my ITIN expire?

ITINs that haven't been included on a U.S. federal tax return at least once in the last three consecutive tax years will expire on December 31st of the third consecutive tax year, and must be renewed before being used again on a U.S. federal tax return. ITINs assigned before 2013, that were never renewed, have expired. Expired ITINs must be renewed in order to avoid delays in processing your tax return. For more information, see How do I renew my ITIN? later, or visit <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/individual-taxpayer-identification-number>.

How do I renew my ITIN?

ITINs only need to be renewed if there is a federal tax filing purpose for the ITIN. You must complete Form W-7/W-7(SP), attach a valid U.S. Federal income tax return, unless you qualify for an exception, and include your original identification documents or certified copy from the issuing agency along with the "letter of denial" from the SSA (if applicable). Send your complete package to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

Refer to "How Do I Apply for a new ITIN?" for services provided by Acceptance Agents, IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers (TACs), and toll-free services.

Your Form W-7 ITIN renewal application will be processed at the IRS Austin Service Center listed above and your identification documents will be returned within 60 days of receipt and processing of the Form W-7/W7(SP). For additional information, see "How long does it take to get an ITIN?"

REMINDER: Use the most current version of Form W-7 to avoid delays in processing or the application being returned to you. For your convenience, you can access fillable Form W-7 at <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw7.pdf>. Complete, print then sign the Form W-7.

What do I do if my name has changed since I received my ITIN?

If the change affects your legal name, you will need to request a name change by sending a letter directly to the address listed under "Where do I file my Form W-7/W-7(SP)?", later. Include an explanation of the circumstances leading to the change (marriage, divorce, etc.) and submit documentation to support your request. Examples include:

- A copy of a marriage license.
- A copy of a divorce certificate.
- An official court related document validating the name change.

Deceased Taxpayers

When an ITIN is being requested for a deceased taxpayer, the word "Deceased" and the date of death should be written across the top of the Form W-7. In addition to meeting all requirements in the Form W-7 instructions for obtaining an ITIN, additional documentation to substantiate the death of the individual must be provided pursuant to the chart below.

IF YOU ARE	THEN YOU MUST ATTACH
(a) The surviving spouse filing an original or amended joint return with your deceased spouse	<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Form W-7■ U.S. individual federal income tax return■ Documentation substantiating "identity" and "foreign status" of the deceased
(b) The court appointed executor or administrator of the deceased's estate filing an original tax return on behalf of the deceased	<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Form W-7■ U.S. individual federal income tax return■ Documentation substantiating "identity" and "foreign status" of the deceased along with■ A court certificate showing your appointment
(c) Not the surviving spouse claiming a refund on a joint return and there was no executor or administrator of the deceased's estate appointed	<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Form W-7■ U.S. individual federal income tax return■ Documentation substantiating "identity" and "foreign status" of the deceased along with■ Form 1310■ A copy of the Certificate of Death

- If a Form W-7 is attached for a deceased taxpayer under 18 years of age, then one of the documents proving identity, foreign status and/or U.S. residency must be a birth certificate, unless a passport with a U.S. date of entry into the United States is submitted.

Where can I get a Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

Forms can be obtained by:

- Calling 1-800-829-3676 within the continental United States only. Bulk quantities may also be ordered through this number.
- Using a personal computer to download Form W-7/W-7(SP) from our world wide web site at <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw7.pdf>
- Visiting the nearest IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center
- Writing to:

Internal Revenue Service
National Distribution Center
1201 N. Mitsubishi Motorway
Bloomington, IL 61705-6613

What information must be included on Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

Form W-7/W-7(SP) will request the following type of information:

- Application type (check box)
- Reason you're submitting Form W-7
- Applicant's full name (and birth name if different)
- Applicant's mailing address
- Applicant's foreign address
- Applicant's date and place of birth
- Applicant's country of citizenship
- Information about a passport or visa
- Previously assigned ITIN on Line 6f (if renewing)
- The signature of the applicant, or if the applicant is a dependent under the age of 18, it may be the signature of the parent, court appointed guardian or Power of Attorney. (see "Signature" later in this Publication).

NOTE: Applicants are required to file their Form W-7/W-7(SP) with a valid U.S. Federal income tax return attached, unless they meet an exception to return filing (see "Exceptions").

General information for the completion of Form W-7/W-7(SP) begins on Page 11.

Where do I attach my Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

If you are applying for an ITIN, and required to file a U.S. Federal income tax return with this form, attach Form W-7/W-7(SP) to the front of your return. If you are applying for more than one ITIN for the same return (such as for a spouse or dependents) attach all Forms W-7/W-7(SP) in the order that the individuals are listed on the tax return.

Where do I file my Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

By Mail:

Mail your completed application, your original U.S. Federal income tax return, if applicable, and any other substantiating or supporting identification documents listed on the Supporting Documentation Table to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

If you are using a private delivery service send your Form W-7 package to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operations
Mail Stop 6090-AUSC
3651 S. Interregional, Hwy 35
Austin, TX 78741-0000

CAUTION: Do not use the mailing address in the instructions for your U.S. Federal income tax return; use the address above. Do not send a copy of the return to any other IRS office.

In Person: Designated IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers (TACs) can verify original documentation and certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency for primary and secondary applicants and their dependents. For dependents, TACs can verify passports, national identification cards, and birth certificates. These documents will be returned to you immediately. Service at TACs is by appointment only. Appointments can be scheduled by calling 1-844-545-5640. See <https://www.irs.gov/help/contact-your-local-irs-office> for a list of designated TACs that offer ITIN document authentication service. TACs that don't offer ITIN document authentication service will mail the original documents, Form W-7, and tax return to the IRS Austin Service Center for processing.

Through Acceptance Agents: You can also apply through an Acceptance Agent authorized by the IRS to facilitate the ITIN application process for you. To obtain a list of authorized Acceptance Agents in your area, visit the IRS website at <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/international-taxpayers/acceptance-agent-program>.

REMINDER: Keep a copy of your application for your records.

What are Acceptance Agents?

Acceptance Agents (AAs) are persons (individuals or entities (colleges, financial institutions, accounting firms, etc.)) who have entered into formal agreements with the IRS that permit them to assist applicants in obtaining ITINs. An AA will need to submit original documentation or certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency to the IRS for all applicants.

Certifying Acceptance Agents (CAAs) are individuals or entities who assume a greater responsibility. They are authorized to verify the applicant's claim of "identity" and "foreign status" by reviewing supporting documentation and verifying the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the documents for primary and secondary taxpayers and dependents. CAAs can review, authenticate the original documents or certified copies from the issuing agency, and submit to the IRS the completed Form W-7, U.S. federal income tax return, if applicable, with a copy of documents for primary and secondary taxpayers, except for foreign military identification cards. For dependents, CAAs can only verify passports and birth certificates. In addition, once the ITIN is issued, the CAA receives your number directly from IRS.

IRS does not charge a fee to obtain an ITIN, however, a person acting as an AA/CAA may charge a fee for their services. A list of authorized Acceptance Agents is available on the IRS website at <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/international-taxpayers/acceptance-agent-program>.

NOTE: Acceptance Agents only assist in the application process and are not authorized to issue the ITIN directly.

Will I have to pay to get an ITIN?

The IRS does not require payment of a fee for issuing an ITIN. However, fees may apply if you choose to use the services of an Acceptance Agent.

When should I apply for my ITIN?

If you're applying for an ITIN, complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) as soon as you are ready to file your U.S. Federal income tax return, since you must attach the return to your application. However, if you meet one of the exceptions to the tax return filing requirement, submit your completed Form W-7/W-7(SP), along with your proof of "identity" and "foreign status" and the required supplemental documents to substantiate your qualification for the exception, as soon as possible after you determine you are covered by an exception. You can apply for an ITIN any time during the year; however, if the tax return you attach to Form W-7 is filed after the return's due date, you may owe interest and/or penalties. If your ITIN has expired and the ITIN will be included on a U.S. federal tax return, you must submit a renewal application. If your ITIN won't be included on a U.S. federal tax return, you don't need to renew your ITIN at this time.

NOTE: Spouses and dependents who are renewing their ITINs to claim an allowable tax benefit will need to attach a U.S. federal tax return to Form W-7/W-7(SP). See "Do spouses and dependents need to renew their ITINs?" earlier.

How long does it take to get an ITIN?

If you qualify for an ITIN and your application is complete, you will receive a letter from the IRS assigning your tax identification number usually within seven weeks (up to 11 weeks if requested during peak tax time (January 15 through April 30) or from abroad). Applications mailed from abroad may take considerably longer. If you have not received a response within the referenced time period, you may call 1-800-829-1040 (toll-free within the United States) to request the status of your application. Taxpayers overseas can call 1-267-941-1000 (not a toll-free number).

Can I get an ITIN if I am an undocumented alien?

Yes, if you are required to file a U. S. Federal income tax return or qualify to be listed on another individual's tax return as a spouse or dependent, you must have either a valid SSN or an ITIN. Spouses and dependents can only be claimed as exemptions for tax years prior to 2018. If you are an undocumented alien and cannot get a SSN, you must get an ITIN for tax purposes. Remember, having an ITIN does not:

- Give you the right to work in the United States,
- Change your immigration status, or
- Entitle you to the Earned Income Tax Credit or Social Security benefits.

Can I e-file a tax return with an ITIN?

Yes, however, you can only e-file a tax return using an ITIN in the calendar year following the year in which you receive it. For example, if you apply for and receive an ITIN this year, you may not e-file any tax return (including prior year returns) using that ITIN, until next year.

Due to IRS e-file limitations on prior year tax returns, you may only e-file returns for the current tax year and two prior tax years.

Is the Form W-7 available in any foreign language?

Yes, this form is available in Spanish as Form W-7(SP), Solicitud de Número de Identificación Personal del Contribuyente del Servicio de Impuestos Internos.

DOCUMENTATION

What are the documentation requirements when applying for an ITIN?

The Form W-7 Application must be accompanied by the following documentation when applying for an ITIN:

1. For applicants requesting an ITIN, a valid U.S. Federal income tax return for which the ITIN is needed and, if applicable, the letter of denial from the SSA if not eligible to receive an SSN (See Employment Issues, later). However, if one of the exceptions to the tax return filing requirement applies, you must also attach the documentation that is required to support that exception.
2. The original documents or copies of documents certified by the issuing agency that substantiate the information provided on the Form W-7/W-7(SP). The supporting documentation must be consistent with the applicant's information provided on Form W-7/W-7(SP). For example, the name, date of birth and country of citizenship on the document you submit, must be the same as lines 1a, 1b, 4 and 6a of the Form W-7/W-7(SP).

NOTE: IRS will mail your original documents (passport, etc.) back to you at the mailing address you entered on your Form W-7. If you plan to move, ensure that you use a mailing address where you will be able to receive your mail. By visiting a designated IRS TAC office to apply for an ITIN, an IRS employee can review your original documents or certified copies and return them to you immediately. This alleviates any long delays waiting for your original documentation (passports, etc.) to be returned to you by mail. Service at TACs is by appointment only (see Page 7 for additional information on TAC offices).

Applicants are permitted to include a prepaid Express Mail or courier envelope for faster return delivery of their documents.

The documentation you present must:

1. Verify your identity by containing your name and photograph and support your claim of foreign status. (see "Supporting Documentation Table" in the Exhibits).
2. Be an original document
3. Be a copy of an original document if you do any of the following:
 - Have the copies certified by the issuing agency of the original record.
 - Officers at U.S. Embassies and Consulates overseas may provide certification and authentication services. Contact the Consular Section, American Citizens Services of the U.S. embassy or consulate in advance to determine the hours of operation for these services.
4. Notarized copies are only acceptable for dependents and spouses of U.S. military personnel applying from overseas without an SSN who need an ITIN. Military spouses use box "e" Form W-7 and dependents use box "d". A copy of the servicemember's U.S. military ID is required if the documents are notarized. Additionally, the applicant must be applying from an overseas or APO/FPO address.

NOTE: Spouses and dependents can only be claimed as exemptions for tax years 2017 and prior.

5. Be current, i.e. not expired. The definition of "current" for applying for an ITIN is as follows:

- Birth certificates do not contain expiration dates and, therefore, will be considered current.
- Passports and National Identification cards displaying an "expiration" date will be considered current only if the date displayed on the document has not expired prior to the date the Form W-7/W-7(SP) is submitted.

Medical records (accepted only for dependents under 6 years of age).

Medical records MUST include all the following.

- Official document such as a shot/immunization record or dated letter from the medical provider on official letterhead (the dated letter must be signed);
- Applicant's name, date of birth, address (must be a U.S. address if proof of U.S. residency is required);
- Date of medical care within 12 months before the date of the Form W-7 application; and
- Doctor's name and medical facility's address where the care was provided (must be a U.S. address if proof of U.S. residency is required).
- A combination of the official documents can be used to cover all requirements for the record.

School records (accepted only for dependents under 24 years of age).

School records MUST include all the following.

- Official document such as a report card, transcript, or dated letter from a school official on letterhead (the dated letter must be signed);
- Applicant's name and address (must be a U.S. address if proof of U.S. residency is required);
- Record of attendance or coursework with grades;
- School's name and address (must be a U.S. address if proof of U.S. residency is required); and
- School term dates ending no more than 12 months from the date of the Form W-7 application.
- A combination of the official documents can be used to cover all requirements for the record.

"Original" documents you submit will be returned to you. You do not need to provide a return envelope. "Copies" of documents will not be returned. If your original documents are not returned within 60 days, you may call the IRS (see "Telephone Help") to inquire as to the status. Applicants are permitted to include a prepaid Express Mail or courier envelope for faster return delivery of their documents. The IRS will then return the documents in the envelope provided by the applicant.

What documents are acceptable as proof of identity and foreign status?

IRS has streamlined the number of documents the agency will accept as proof of identity and foreign status to obtain an ITIN. If you submit an original passport or a certified copy of a valid passport you do not need to submit any other documents from the list below.

However, passports without a date of entry into the United States for dependents who are not from Canada or Mexico, or dependents of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas cannot be used as a stand-alone document. Additional original documentation to verify U.S. residency must be provided by these applicants. See Dependency/Exemption Issues on Page 10.

NOTE: Copies of a passport must include the U.S. visa pages if a visa is required for your Form W-7 application.

If you do not have a passport, you must provide a combination of current documents (at least two or more) that show your name and photograph and support your claim of identity and foreign status. With the exception of children under 14 years of age (under 18 years of age if a student), at least one document you present must contain a recent photograph. If you are requesting an ITIN as a "dependent", documentation to prove "foreign status" and "identity" must include a civil "Birth Certificate", unless a Passport is submitted.

NOTE: If you submit copies of original documents that display information on both sides (front and back), the copy that is submitted must also show the information from both sides of the document.

Listed below are the only documents that will be accepted by IRS:

1. Passport (stand-alone document)*
2. United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) photo identification
3. Visa issued by the US Department of State
4. United States driver's license
5. United States military identification card
6. Foreign driver's license
7. Foreign military identification card
8. National identification card. The document must be current, and contain the individual's name, address, photograph, date of birth and expiration date (i.e. Mexican Matricula card)
9. U. S. State identification card
10. Foreign voter's registration card
11. Civil birth certificate **
12. Medical records (dependents only – under 6 years of age);
13. School Records (dependents only under 24 years of age if a student) **

* Passport must have a date of entry into the United States for dependents, unless they are dependents from Canada or Mexico, U.S. military personnel stationed overseas, and are either listed on a submitted return for tax years 2017 or earlier or are claimed for any allowable tax benefit other than the credit for other dependents (ODC).

May be used to establish foreign status only if documents are foreign.

NOTE: You may subsequently be requested to provide a certified translation of foreign language documents.

If you have applied for a Social Security Number, but the Social Security Administration has denied your request, your ITIN application must also contain an official letter, form, or other documentation from the SSA providing proof that your application was denied. (This pertains only to persons who have been issued a Visa from the U.S. Department of State that enables them to obtain a SSN.) This proof must be attached to your Form W-7/W-7(SP) or your application for an ITIN will be rejected.

Students who enter the U.S. on an "F", "J", or "M" visa, but who will not be employed and are here only for the purpose of study, or persons present in the U.S. who are receiving only honoraria payments, do not have to go to the SSA to try and obtain a Social Security Number first. A letter from the Designated School Official (DSO), Responsible Officer

(RO) or Authorized School Official can be submitted in lieu of a letter from the SSA when a U.S. Federal income tax return is attached or when an exception is being claimed. Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) approved institutions for non-resident alien students and exchange visitors and their dependents classified under section 101(a)(15)(F), (M) or (J) of the Immigration and Nationality Act {8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(F), (M) or (J)} A certification letter is required for each Form W-7 application: primary, associated secondary (spouse) and dependent(s). (See the Exception Chart at the end of this publication.)

What is a National Identification Card?

Some foreign governments issue identification cards to their citizens. IRS will accept these cards as proof of identity and foreign status in combination with other documents described above if the card is current (i.e. not expired) and contains the applicant's name, address, photograph, and date of birth.

EXCEPTIONS

What are the “exceptions” to the requirement to attach a U.S. Federal income tax return?

ITIN applicants must attach a valid U.S. Federal income tax return to their Form W-7 application, there are limited circumstances under which an ITIN will be issued without an attached return. If any of the five exceptions listed below apply to you, you will not need to attach a tax return to your W-7/W-7(SP).

These exceptions are explained in detail in the Exhibit section at end of this Publication. If you claim an exception to the requirement to submit a valid original U.S. Federal income tax return with Form W-7/W-7(SP) you must submit proof of your claim instead of the tax return.

NOTE: Applicants with a VISA that is valid for employment, and who will be employed in the U.S., should first apply for a SSN with the Social Security Administration (SSA).

If you are unable to obtain a SSN after completing Form SS-5, a denial letter from the SSA must be attached to your Form W-7/W-7(SP) or your application will be rejected. Remember, you are not eligible for an ITIN if you are eligible to obtain a SSN.

Exception 1. Third Party Withholding on Passive Income;

■ Third Party Withholding on Passive Income. IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding is required and apply to third parties (frequently banks and other financial institutions), who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S. Treasury Regulations. To obtain an ITIN under this exception, you must include supporting documentation with your Form W-7/W-7(SP) showing that you own an asset that generates income subject to IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding requirements that will take place within the current tax year. An original letter or signed statement from your bank, financial institution or withholding agent must be attached.

Exception 2. Wages, Salary, Compensation and Honoraria Payments with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; Scholarships, Fellowships and Grants with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; Scholarships, Fellowships and Grants – No Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; or Gambling Winnings with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed ■ Wages, Salary or Compensation and Honoraria Payments* - Tax Treaty Benefits claimed. IRS information reporting and tax withholding is required by law and apply to third parties who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S. Treasury Regulations. To obtain a TIN under this exception, you must attach a letter from the SSA denying your request for a Social Security Number.

* Individuals present in the U.S. who are receiving honoraria payments only, do not have to apply for a SSN or submit letter of denial from the SSA. A letter from the Authorized School Official who extended the invitation will suffice.

■ Scholarship, Fellowship or Grant Income. IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding is required by law and apply to third parties who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S.

Treasury Regulations. Students on a F-1, J-1 or M-1 visa who will not be working while studying in the U.S., will not have to apply for a SSN. Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) approved institutions for non-resident alien students and exchange visitors, their spouses and dependents classified under section 101(a)(15)(F), (M) or (J) of the Immigration and Nationality Act {8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(F), (M) or (J)} An original certification letter is required for each Form W-7 application: primary, associated secondary (spouse) and dependent(s).

■ Gambling Winnings – Tax Treaty Benefits claimed. If you are a nonresident alien visitor with gambling winnings, your Form W-7/W-7(SP) will be processed under an exception (2) only if submitted through the appropriate gaming official serving as an authorized IRS ITIN Acceptance Agent.

Exception 3. Third Party Reporting of Mortgage Interest

Under the Internal Revenue laws, most recipients (lenders) of home mortgage interest report the amount of interest they receive from the borrower to both the IRS and the borrower. This reporting is usually done on a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement. First time filers who secure a home loan may seek an ITIN to provide to their lender.

Exception 4. Third Party Withholding – Disposition by a Foreign Person of United States Real Property Interest

A tax withholding obligation is generally imposed on a buyer or other transferee (withholding agent) when a United States real property interest is acquired from a foreign person. This withholding serves to collect the tax that may be owed by the foreign person. In some instances, the foreign person may apply for a withholding certificate to reduce or eliminate withholding on the disposition of the real property. An ITIN would be needed for this transaction. This exception may also apply if you have a notice of non-recognition under Treasury Regulations section 1.1445-2(d)(2). See the Exception Tables for more details on Exception 4.

Exception 5. TD-9363.

This exception may apply if you have an IRS reporting requirement under Treasury Decision 9363 and are submitting Form W-7, and supplemental documentation. See the Exception Tables for more details on Exception 5.

DEPENDENCY/EXEMPTION ISSUES

(See IRS Publication 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for who qualifies to be claimed as a dependent.)

What are the rules for proof of residency for dependents?

Residents of Mexico, Canada, or U.S. nationals must use the same rules as U.S. citizens to determine who is a dependent and for which dependents exemptions can be claimed. For residents of the Republic of Korea (South Korea) there are two additional requirements, and for students and business apprentices from India they must also be able to claim the benefits of the United States-India tax treaty. See Pub. 501 for additional information and to determine who may qualify as a dependent.

NOTE: Dependents can be claimed as exemptions only for tax years 2017 and prior.

The dependent for which the Form W-7 is being submitted must be listed on the attached U.S. Federal income tax return.

Applicants claimed as dependents need to prove U.S. residency unless the applicant is a dependent of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas, or the applicant is proving foreign status from Canada or Mexico and is claimed for any allowable tax benefit other than the credit for other dependents (ODC). All other applicants claimed as dependents, including applicants from Canada or Mexico claimed for the ODC, are required to submit at least one of the following original documents as proof of U.S. residency unless a passport is submitted with a date of entry into the United States.

· If under 6 years of age: A valid U.S. medical record, U.S. school record, U.S. state identification card, or U.S. visa that meets all supporting documentation requirements.

- If at least 6 years of age but under 18 years of age: A valid U.S. school record, U.S. state identification card, U.S. driver's license, or U.S. visa that meets all supporting documentation requirements.
- If 18 years of age or older: A valid U.S. school record (under age 24 only), U.S. state identification card, U.S. driver's license, or U.S. visa that meets all supporting documentation requirements; U.S. bank statement, U.S. rental statement, or U.S. utility bill from a U.S. property that lists the applicant's name and U.S. address.

NOTE: If your request for an Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number (ATIN) has been denied your dependent may be eligible for an ITIN. If you live abroad and are requesting an ITIN for a foreign child who has been adopted or legally placed in your home pending adoption, remember to include a copy of the legal documents evidencing your relationship to the child.

EMPLOYMENT ISSUES

Are ITINs valid for work purposes?

ITINs do not authorize individuals to work in the United States and are not valid for employment purposes. However, if you are required to file a U.S. Federal income tax return and are ineligible to receive a SSN, you must obtain an ITIN.

Which aliens are eligible to receive Social Security Numbers?

Certain aliens by virtue of their nonimmigrant status are authorized to work in the United States. Some of the individuals must apply to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for an Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Any nonresident alien holding an EAD, or who is already authorized to work in the United States, is eligible to receive a SSN.

If you have an EAD, do not complete a Form W-7/W-7(SP) application unless the SSA has rejected your request for a SSN. Supporting documentation from the SSA substantiating the denial must be attached to your application. For more information on who is eligible to receive a Social Security Number, refer to the Social Security Administration website at <http://www.socialsecurity.gov>.

What student visas qualify for employment?

Students who enter the United States under certain U.S. visas may be eligible to work in the United States. For more information on who is eligible to work and who must apply for an EAD, refer to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) web site at <https://www.uscis.gov>.

Which foreign students qualify for ITINs?

The employment rules for foreign students in the United States are set forth in appropriate United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) laws and regulations. Information on these laws and regulations can be obtained from the nearest USCIS office, the USCIS website at <https://www.uscis.gov>, or the appropriate office of the foreign students' university or learning institution. Generally, foreign students eligible to work in the United States, and who will be employed, should apply for a SSN. However, if they are denied a SSN, they may be eligible to apply for an ITIN by attaching the documentation from the SSA, substantiating the denial, to their Form W-7. (See the Exception Chart in the back of this publication for additional information on F-1, J-1 and M-1 students).

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR COMPLETION OF FORM W-7/W-7(SP)

Line by Line Instructions for Completing Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Please ensure that each line on Form W-7 is completed. If any of the fields are left blank or the information is not valid, the Form W-7 application will be suspended or rejected for incomplete or missing information. Enter N/A on the lines that do not pertain to you.

NOTE: If you discover that you have made an error on a Form W-7 that has already been submitted to the IRS, please do not file another Form W-7 with the correct information. Instead, wait until you have received correspondence from the IRS requesting the documentation or information and send it with your reply.

Application Type:

You must check only one box to indicate whether you are a first-time applicant applying for a new ITIN, or seeking to renew an existing ITIN. If you check "Renew an Existing ITIN", you must also complete Lines 6e and 6f of Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Application Type (Check one box):

- Apply for a New ITIN
- Renew an Existing ITIN

Reason You're Submitting Form W-7/W-7(SP):

New and renewing ITIN applicants must check a box to indicate the reason they are submitting Form W-7. If more than one box applies to you, check the box that best explains your reason for submitting the Form.

Reason you're submitting Form W-7. Read the instructions for the box you check. Caution: If you check box b, c, d, e, f, or g, you must file a U.S. federal tax return with Form W-7 unless you meet one of the exceptions (see instructions).

Box "d" is checked	The relationship to US citizen/resident alien must be present in the space provided.
Box "d" or "e" is checked	The full name and SSN or ITIN of the U.S. person who is the citizen/resident alien must be present in the space provided.
Box "h" is checked	The information describing in detail the reason that the ITIN is being requested must be present in the space provided. Note: Statements such as "Renewing an ITIN" or "ITIN renewal" are not valid reasons.
Box "f" or "g" is checked	A copy of the individual's visa must be attached unless they are entering the U.S. from Canada, Bermuda, Bahamas, Cayman Islands or Turks and Caicos Islands.

Note: See "Exhibits" at the end of this publication for examples of completed Forms W-7

Line 1 – Name:

L.1a. Enter your legal name as it appears on your documents. This entry should reflect your name as it will appear on a United States Federal income tax return. Caution: Your ITIN will be established using this name. If you do not use this name on your tax return, the processing of the tax return may be delayed until discrepancies are resolved.

Note: Renewing applicants whose legal names have changed since the original assignment of their ITIN must submit documentation to support the legal name change. See "What do I do if my name has changed since I received my ITIN?", earlier. Attach the supporting documentation to Form W-7.

Name (see instructions) Name at birth if different . . . ►	1a First name Mary	Middle name Jane	Last name Doe
	1b First name Mary	Middle name Jane	Last name Smith

L.1b. If an entry is present, it must reflect the applicant's name as it appears on their birth certificate.

Line 2 - Applicant's Mailing Address:

If a mailing address is used that is different from the address where the applicant normally resides (Line 3), then the address must include the street, city/town, province (if any), state/country and zip/foreign postal code.

Applicant's mailing address	2 Street address, apartment number, or rural route number. If you have a P.O. box, see page 4. 1234 Market Street Apt. 1AAA
	City or town, state or province, and country. Include ZIP code or postal code where appropriate. Philadelphia, PA 19104

Note: Do not use a P.O. Box or an "in care of" (c/o) address instead of a street address if you are entering just a "country name" on Line 3.

Line 3 – Foreign Address:

Enter your complete foreign address (non-U.S.) including street, city/town, province (if any), country and foreign postal code, in the country where you permanently or normally reside outside of the U.S.* If the foreign address is the same as the address on line 2, re-enter the address on line 3. If you're claiming a benefit under an income tax treaty with the United States, the income tax treaty country must be the same as the country listed on line 3. If you do not have a permanent residence due to relocation to the U.S., enter only the "name" of the foreign country where you last resided . However, if reason for applying "b" is checked, you must provide the complete foreign mailing address.

Do not enter a post office box or an "in care of" (c/o) address on this line. If you do your application may be rejected.

An IRSN is a nine-digit number issued by the IRS to persons who file a return and make a payment without providing a taxpayer identifying number. You would have been issued this number if you filed a U.S. Federal income tax return and did not have a Social Security Number. This temporary TIN will appear on any correspondence the IRS sent you concerning that return.

If you're submitting Form W-7 to renew your ITIN, you must include your previously assigned ITIN on line 6f to avoid delays in processing your Form W-7.

L.6g. Name of college/university/or company – (must be completed only if reason box "f" is checked).

If you checked reason box "f", you must provide the name of the educational institution and the city and state in which it is located. You must also indicate your length of stay.

If you are temporarily in the United States for business purposes, you must provide the name of the company with whom you are conducting your business and the city and state in which it is located. Also enter your length of stay in the U.S.

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP) if the applicant is a dependent under 18 years of age?

If the applicant is under 18 years of age the applicant, their parent or court appointed guardian can sign if the child can not. The individual (if other than the applicant) must type or print his or her name in the space provided and check the appropriate box that indicates their relationship to the applicant. If the individual is signing as a court-appointed guardian, a copy of the court-appointment papers showing the legal guardianship must be attached.

Adults other than a parent or court appointed guardian can sign the Form W-7, only if a Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, has been signed by a parent or court-appointed guardian authorizing the individual to sign for the applicant.

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP) if the applicant is a dependent 18 years of age or older?

If an applicant is 18 years of age or older, the applicant or a court appointed guardian can sign or appoint a parent or another individual to sign. The individual (if other than the applicant) must type or print their name in the space provided and check the appropriate box that indicates their relationship to the applicant. If the individual is signing as a court-appointed guardian, a copy of the court-appointment papers showing the legal guardianship must be attached. Individuals other than the applicant or a court-appointed guardian must attach a Form 2848 from the applicant or court-appointed guardian authorizing them to sign the Form W-7.

Note: If submitting a Power of Attorney (POA) with your Form W-7 application, use IRS Form 2848. Substitute POAs must contain all elements of Form 2848, and if in a foreign language, you must provide a certified English translation. The POA must clearly state the purpose for which it is intended under the "tax matters" section. Refer to the IRS web site at <https://www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/about-form-2848> for additional information on Power of Attorney.

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP) if the applicant cannot sign their own name?

If an applicant cannot sign their name, then they must sign their mark, for example an "X" or a thumbprint, in the presence of a witness. The witness's signature is also required and must be identified as a witness.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

ITIN Eligibility

1. I am a taxpayer who would like to apply for an ITIN. The Form W-7 instructions state that I must have a federal tax purpose to obtain an ITIN. What does this mean?

There may be several reasons that show you have a federal tax purpose. For example, you may be legally required to file a federal tax return, you may need to file a federal tax return to claim a refund, or you may file a federal tax return to report income even though you don't owe tax or otherwise have a filing requirement. Generally, a tax return that contains all zero entries will not show a federal tax purpose.

2. Am I required to submit estimated tax payments if I'm earning income and cannot apply for an ITIN until I file my tax return next year? If so, how do I make estimated tax payments without an ITIN?

If you receive income without having taxes withheld, you may have to make estimated tax payments, even if you don't have an ITIN when you earn the income. You should mail payments to the IRS with an estimated tax payment voucher and complete all required information on the voucher except enter "ITIN TO BE REQUESTED" wherever your social security number or ITIN is requested. Form W-7 should not be filed with the voucher. See Form 1040-ES or Form 1040-ES \(NR\) and its instructions for more information on completing the voucher and when estimated tax payments are required.

3. My dependent lives with me in the U.S. and is a U.S. citizen. I want to enroll the dependent in health insurance through Healthcare.gov, or my state's Health Insurance Marketplace. I don't qualify for an SSN, and I don't have an ITIN. When do I apply for my ITIN?

You can enroll your dependent in a Healthcare Insurance Marketplace even though you do not have an SSN or an ITIN. If you want to claim the Premium Tax Credit \(PTC\) for the Health Insurance Marketplace plan premiums you paid for your dependent or if advanced payments of the Premium Tax Credit (APTC) were paid to lower the cost of your premiums, you must file a federal income tax return and include IRS Form 8962, Premium Tax Credit \(PTC\), with your return. On Form 8962, you must reconcile the APTC paid on your dependent's behalf with the PTC you are allowed for the year. You should apply for an ITIN when you file your tax return.

4. I am being asked for an ITIN because I will begin receiving a U.S. pension or annuity now that my family member has died. I am not a U.S. resident alien and am not eligible for a Social Security number (SSN). When should I apply for an ITIN?

You are eligible to apply for an ITIN once you become entitled to receive a payment or distribution that is subject to information-reporting and withholding requirements.

Your application must include an original document or signed letter from the withholding agent, on official letterhead, showing your name and verifying that an ITIN is required to make distributions to you during the current tax year that are subject to IRS information reporting and/or federal tax withholding.

When completing Form W-7, check boxes a and h and, on the dotted line next to box h, enter "Exception 1d-Pension Distributions" or "Exception 1d-Annuity Distributions" as appropriate.

See Examples of Completed Forms W-7 for Exceptions.

Identity and Foreign Status

5. The Form W-7 instructions state that every ITIN applicant must submit documentation to establish identity and foreign status. I'm from Mexico and reside in the U.S. What is my "foreign status"?

Foreign status is your connection to a country other than the U.S. Because you are from Mexico and reside in the U.S., you should provide current foreign documents in your full legal name from Mexico, such as a passport, civil birth certificate, or a foreign voter's registration card, to establish foreign status.

6. The Form W-7 asks for a reason why you're submitting this form. I arrived in the U.S. last year and haven't left. How do I know if I am a nonresident alien or a resident alien filing a U.S. tax return?

Whether you are a resident alien for federal tax purposes is different than your legal status for immigration or other legal purposes. For example, you can be a resident alien for federal tax purposes even though you are not a lawful permanent resident of the United States.

You should select U.S. resident alien as your reason for submitting Form W-7 if you were present in the U.S. for more than 183 days and you don't need to follow special day-counting rules that apply to certain foreign government-related individuals, teachers, trainees, and students who are temporarily present in the U.S. under certain U.S. visas. If you weren't present in the U.S. for at least 183 days or if you need to follow the special day-counting rules, see Determining an Individual's Tax Residency Status and Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more details about whether you satisfy the substantial presence test. If you select U.S. resident alien on Form W-7, enter on line 2 your U.S. address and, on line 3, enter your complete foreign (non-U.S.) address in the country where you permanently or normally reside, and, on line 6d, your date of entry into the United States in the month/day/year format. If you no longer have a permanent foreign residence, enter only the foreign country where you last resided on line 3.

If you do not satisfy the substantial presence test, then you will not be considered a resident alien and should select a reason indicating that you are a nonresident alien on the Form W-7. On Line 2 of the Form W-7, enter your U.S. address and, on line 3, enter your complete foreign (non-U.S.) address in the country where you permanently or normally reside, or if you no longer have a permanent foreign residence, enter your complete foreign (non-U.S.) address for your most recent residence in the country where you permanently or normally resided. On line 6d, your date of entry into the United States in the month/day/year format.

7. Line 3 of Form W-7 asks me to enter my "Foreign (Non-U.S.) Address". What do I do if I no longer have a foreign address?

If you no longer have a permanent foreign residence due to your relocation to the United States, you may enter only the foreign country where you last resided on line 3 unless you selected reason b, Nonresident alien filing a U.S. federal tax return as your reason you're submitting Form W-7. If you chose reason b, enter the complete foreign (non-U.S.) address for your most recent residence in the country where you permanently or normally resided.

8. I'm a U.S. resident alien who is filing a U.S. federal tax return. Must I prove U.S. residency when applying for an ITIN?

No, you are not required to show proof of U.S. residency.

Dependent applicants must show proof of U.S. residency when someone filing a U.S. tax return claims them for tax benefits that require them to be a U.S. resident alien.

9. I'm a U.S. resident alien who is filing a U.S. federal tax return. Am I required to provide a document that contains a photograph when applying for an ITIN?

Yes, at least one document must contain your photograph. For more information on acceptable documents, see the Supporting Documentation Requirements table in the Instructions to the Form W-7.

Documentation

10. What if the expiration date on my passport or national identification card has expired before I submit the Form W-7?

All documents must be current (and not expired). Documents, such as passports and national identification cards, will be considered current if their expiration date hasn't passed prior to the date the Form W-7 is submitted. Certain documents that do not contain an expiration date, such as civil birth certificates, will always be considered current.

11. What if the expiration date on my passport or national identification card expires while the IRS is processing my Form W-7?

If you submitted your Form W-7 application before the document expired, then we will consider it current. We will look at the date that your application was submitted and the expiration date of the document to make this determination.

12. I am concerned about providing original documentation that I may need while you process my ITIN application. What options do I have that allow me to keep my documents, and is there anything I can do to prevent any potential delays during the application process?

If you have concerns about submitting original documentation, you may want to obtain a certified copy from the issuing agency, apply through an IRS authorized Certifying Acceptance Agent (CAA) or make an appointment to visit a designated IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center \(TAC\) location.

CAAs can verify original documentation and certified copies for primary and secondary applicants and their dependents, except for foreign military identification cards. For dependents, CAAs can verify only passports and birth certificates. The CAA will return the documentation immediately after reviewing its authenticity. For more information and a list of acceptance agents including certifying acceptance agents, see Acceptance Agent Program. Note that acceptance agents who are not CAAs cannot certify your documents. Also, a TAC can authenticate the documents listed in the Supporting Documentation Requirements table in the Instructions to the Form W-7. If you submit school or medical records as supporting documentation for a dependent, you must submit the original school or medical record with the application, whether you apply through a CAA, at a TAC, or by mailing in your application.

To avoid any delays in processing your W-7 application, you should carefully assess the quality of your documents and review for completeness prior to submitting your application package. Documents that are not clear or contain blemishes are likely to be considered invalid, and you may receive a letter requesting new documents.

Applying for an ITIN for Dependent Applicants

13. Does a dependent applicant need to be claimed for an "allowable tax benefit" to receive an ITIN?

An ITIN is issued to individuals who are required to have a U.S. taxpayer identification number for federal tax purposes. A dependent applying for an ITIN must be eligible to be claimed for one of the following allowable tax benefits: head of household filing status, qualifying surviving spouse filing status, American opportunity tax credit (AOTC), premium tax credit (PTC), child and dependent care credit (CDCC), and credit for other dependents (ODC). The applicant can still receive an ITIN even if the claimed allowable tax benefit for which the dependent is eligible has no impact on the tax or refund owed.

14. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. Are they eligible to receive an ITIN?

A dependent who is a U.S. resident alien for federal tax purposes for the year is eligible to be claimed for the credit for other dependents \(ODC\) and thereby eligible to apply for an ITIN. Your dependent is a U.S. resident alien if they were present in the U.S. for more than 183 days during the year and they don't need to follow special day-counting rules that apply to certain foreign government-related individuals, teachers, trainees, and students who are temporarily present in the U.S. under certain U.S. visas. If they weren't present in the U.S. for at least 183 days last year or if they need to follow the special day-counting rules, see Determining an Individual's Tax Residency Status and Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens for more details about whether they satisfy the substantial presence test to be considered a U.S. resident alien for federal tax purposes and be eligible to be claimed for the ODC.

You must list the eligible dependent applicant as a "dependent" on your tax return and check the box for the ODC to claim this "allowable tax benefit."

It is important to know that tax software may not automatically check this box on your tax return if the dependent does not have an ITIN; therefore, you must review the tax return and make sure this box is checked before submitting it with the Form W-7 application.

15. I am filing a federal tax return that has a federal tax purpose. My dependent applicant in the U.S. is eligible to be claimed for the credit for other dependents (ODC) but the ODC has zero tax impact on my tax return. Are they still eligible to receive an ITIN?

Yes, if your dependent applicant is eligible to be claimed for the credit for other dependents \(ODC\), the applicant can still receive an ITIN even if the tax return has no tax to be reduced by the ODC.

However, you must list eligible dependent applicant as a "dependent" on your tax return and the box for the ODC must be checked on the tax return to claim this "allowable tax benefit."

It is important to know that tax software may not automatically check this box on your tax return if the dependent does not have an ITIN; therefore, you must review the tax return and make sure this box is checked before submitting it with the Form W-7 application.

16. Must my dependent applicant provide a document that contains a photograph?

If your dependent applicant is under age 14 (or under age 18 if a student) when they apply, then they will not be required to provide a document that contains a photograph. However, if your dependent applicant is age 14 or older (or age 18 or older if a student) when they apply, then they must provide one acceptable document that contains a photograph.

For more information on acceptable documents, see the Supporting Documentation Requirements table in the Instructions to the Form W-7.

17. The Form W-7 instructions state that certain dependent applicants must prove U.S. residency. Why, and when, is this required for my dependent applicant?

For your dependent applicant to receive an ITIN, they must be claimed for an allowable tax benefit. Dependent applicants can be eligible for certain tax benefits like the credit for other dependents only if they reside in the U.S. Unless your dependent applicant resides in Mexico or Canada and qualifies you for another tax benefit like head of household filing status, they will be required to prove U.S. residency.

18. My dependent applicant does not have a passport. What supporting documentation is required to verify residency, foreign status, and identity?

If your dependent applicant does not have a valid passport, then they will need to provide two separate documents from the Supporting Documentation Requirements table in the Instructions to the Form W-7 to establish proof of residency in the U.S., foreign status, and identity.

19. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and has a passport with a date of entry into the U.S. Can the passport be used as documentation?

Yes, a valid foreign passport with a date of entry into the U.S. establishes identity, foreign status, and U.S. residency. No additional documentation is needed.

20. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and has a foreign passport with no date of entry into the U.S. Can the passport be used as documentation?

Yes, they may submit a valid foreign passport with no date of entry into the U.S. to establish identity and foreign status. However, they will be required to provide additional documentation to show proof of residency in the U.S.

For more information, see Proof of U.S. residency for applicants who are dependents in the Instructions to the Form W-7.

21. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and is a student under age 24. What school records are acceptable to show proof of U.S. residency?

A valid school record includes 1) a transcript, 2) a report card, or 3) a dated letter from a school official on letterhead indicating record of attendance or coursework with grades (the dated letter must be signed). This record must include your dependent applicant's name and address, the school's name and address, and show school term dates ending no more than 12 months before the date of the Form W-7 application. The address for the school and applicant must be in the U.S. if this document is used to prove U.S. residency. A combination of the official documents can be used to cover all requirements for the record.

For more information, see the Medical/School Records Checklist.

22. Must the school record for my dependent applicant be signed by a school official?

If the school record is a report card or transcript that meets all the requirements, then a signature is not required. If the school record includes a dated letter from a school official, the letter must be signed.

23. My dependent applicant received a transcript from the school electronically. Would this be considered an original document?

Yes, if a school sent a valid school record, such as a report card or transcript electronically, you may print it out for submission with their Form W-7 application. Be sure the printout is clear and free from blemishes.

24. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and is under age 6. What records are acceptable to show proof of U.S. residency?

If your dependent applicant is under age 6 when they apply and does not submit a valid passport with a date of entry into the U.S., they can provide a valid U.S. medical record, U.S. school record, or U.S. state identification card that lists their name and U.S. address or a U.S. visa to establish proof of residency in the U.S. Your dependent applicant will also need to submit documentation to establish foreign status, such as a valid passport or a foreign birth certificate.

25. What medical records are acceptable to show proof of U.S. residency for a dependent applicant under age 6?

A valid medical record includes 1) a shot/immunization record, or 2) a dated letter from a medical provider on official letterhead (the dated letter must be signed). This record must include your dependent applicant's name, date of birth, and address, the medical provider's name and address, and dates of medical care within 12 months before the date of the Form W-7 application. A combination of the official documents can be used to cover all requirements for the record.

The address for the medical facility and applicant must be in the U.S. if they are using this document to prove U.S. residency. For more information, see the Medical/School Records Checklist.

26. Must the medical record for a dependent applicant under age 6 be signed by the medical provider?

If the medical record is a shot or immunization record that meets all the requirements, then a signature is not required. If the medical record includes a dated letter from a medical provider, the letter must be signed.

27. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and is age 6 or older but under age 18. What additional documentation is acceptable to show proof of U.S. residency?

If your dependent applicant is at least 6 years of age but under 18 years of age at the time of the application and does not submit a passport with a date of entry into the U.S., they must provide a U.S. school record, U.S. state identification card or U.S. driver's license that lists their name and U.S. address, or a U.S. visa to establish proof of residency in the U.S.

28. My dependent applicant received a medical record from the medical provider electronically. Would this be considered an original document?

If a medical provider sent a dependent applicant's valid medical record electronically, you may print it out for submission with their Form W-7 application. Be sure the printout is clear and free from blemishes.

29. My dependent applicant lives with me in the U.S. and is age 18 or older. What additional documentation is acceptable to show proof of U.S. residency?

If your dependent applicant is 18 years of age or older at the time they apply, and does not submit a passport with a date of entry into the U.S., then they must provide a U.S. school record (only if they are under age 24), a rental statement from a U.S. property, utility bill for a U.S. property, U.S. bank statement, U.S. state identification card or U.S. driver's license that lists their name and U.S. address, or a U.S. visa to establish proof of residency in the U.S. All documents must be valid.

30. Can a dependent applicant provide a rental statement from a U.S. property, utility bill for a U.S. property, or a U.S. bank statement for identification purposes?

No, dependent applicants can use this documentation only as proof of U.S. residency if they are 18 years of age or older. Other documentation such as a passport, birth certificate, or driver's license is still required to prove identity.

31. My dependent applicant is my parent who lives in Mexico and qualifies me to file as head of household. Can I receive an ITIN for my parent who cannot show proof of residency in the U.S.?

Yes, if your dependent applicant lives in Canada or Mexico and qualifies you for an allowable tax benefit that does not require proof of U.S. residency (such as the head of household filing status), then the dependent applicant is not required to show proof of U.S. residency. So, if you claim your parent to file as head of household and your parent submits a Canadian or Mexican passport for identification and foreign status purposes, no additional documentation is needed, even if their passport doesn't have a date of entry into the U.S.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION TABLE

An "X" in the "Foreign Status" and/or "Identity" column, indicates that the supporting documentation satisfies that category.

An original passport is the only stand-alone document that proves both "foreign status" and "identity". If a passport is not submitted, a combination of at least two other current (unexpired) documents that show the applicant's name and photograph, and supports their claim of foreign status must be provided. With the exception of children under 14 years of age (under age 18 if a student), at least one document submitted must contain a recent photograph. Note: For dependents, the passport must have a date of entry into the United States to be a stand-alone document, unless the dependent is from Canada or Mexico or a dependent of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas. If a passport without a date of entry into the United States is submitted for a dependent, they must also submit additional original documents to prove U.S. residency. See Dependency/Exemption Issues in this Publication.
